Todd Crider Speaks On Public Company M&A Issues at SEC Institute

04.27.09

Todd Crider spoke on the topic of Mergers and Acquisitions at the invitation of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on April 23, 2009 at the International Institute for Securities Market Development held in Washington D.C. The SEC organizes the Institute each year for securities market regulators and stock exchange employees from emerging markets around the world. Co-panelists were Michele Anderson, Chief, and Christina Chalk, Senior Special Counsel, both of the Office of Mergers & Acquisitions at the SEC Division of Corporate Finance.
