03.12.14

On March 11, the New York office hosted 20 high school students from the Academy for Careers in Television and Film as part of the Firm's Urban Education Initiative. The students learned about the operations of a law firm and different career options, and they participated in a moot court oral argument. Twenty Simpson Thacher staff members and attorneys participated in this visit, which was coordinated by Corporate associates Karen McClendon and Michael Monteleone. Corporate Partner Karen Hsu Kelley gave welcoming remarks to the students. For more information about the Academy for Careers in Television and Film, please click here.
