

News & Events

Home > About Us > News & Events > All News

Rob Smit to Speak at Event Celebrating the Release of CPR's Rules for Administered Arbitration of International Disputes

12.20.14

Litigation Partner Rob Smit will speak at an event hosted by the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (“CPR”) and White & Case LLP that will celebrate the release of CPR's rules for administered arbitration of international disputes on January 14, 2015. The rules outline best practices and current issues in international arbitration and provide fair, fast, flexible and cost-effective procedures for navigating cross-border transactions.

