

Katie Sudol Moderates Panel at the Asia Women in Business Law Forum

03.27.15

Corporate Partner Katie Sudol moderated a panel titled “The Value of Building a Personal Brand: The Importance of Networking and Business Development” at the Asia Women in Business Law Forum held in Hong Kong on March 25, 2015. The Asia Women in Business Law Forum, initiated by the IFLR in 2014, is intended to bring together Asia’s leading women legal practitioners to share their views on best practices and innovation around building a personal brand, networking, mentoring and breaking the glass ceiling. The Forum included a diverse array of speakers, including the chair of the Hong Kong Equal Opportunities Commission, the head of regulatory and compliance at the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the general counsel of The Hong Kong Mortgage Company, general counsels of major multi-national corporations and financial institutions, and leading legal practitioners in private practice. The Firm was a lead sponsor of this year’s Forum.
