

KSL Capital Partners to Acquire FBOs from BBA Aviation plc

03.31.16

Simpson Thacher is representing KSL Capital Partners, LLC in connection with its $190 million acquisition of certain general aviation fixed base operations (“FBOs”) owned by affiliates of BBA Aviation plc, at Washington Dulles International Airport, Westchester County Airport, Scottsdale Municipal Airport, Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport, Fresno Yosemite International Airport and Jacqueline Cochran Regional Airport. The transaction, which is expected to close in the second quarter of 2016, is the result of a U.S. Department of Justice mandated divestiture in connection with BBA Aviation’s prior acquisition of Landmark Aviation and is subject to customary approvals, including airport consents and approval by the U.S. Department of Justice, as well as other customary closing conditions.

The Simpson Thacher team includes Chad Skinner, Dena Acevedo and Colin Osiecki (M&A); Tristan Brown, Tom Asmar and Paul Barrus (Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits); Tanvi Mirani (Tax); John Goheen (Antitrust); Mike Isby and Louise Kruger (Environmental); Krista McManus and Frank Mangiatordi (Real Estate); and Marcela Robledo (IP).
