Keith Noreika Joins Other Former Comptrollers to Mark OCC's 155th Anniversary

02.05.18

Partner Keith Noreika joined the former Comptrollers and former Acting Comptrollers at a lunch to mark the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency's 155th anniversary. Keith served as the Acting Comptroller of the Currency from May 2017 to November 2017. The 31st Comptroller of the Currency, Joseph M. Otting, hosted the lunch with the former agency leaders to discuss the future of the agency and the federal banking system.
