Michael Wolitzer Quoted in Law360 on PE Trends in the First Half of 2019

07.19.19

Corporate Partner Michael Wolitzer was quoted in a Law360 article titled, “6 PE Trends That Are All The Rage Right Now.” In the article, Michael discusses a variety of topics, ranging from companies choosing to stay private longer to the growing concentration of investment capital in fewer funds. He also comments on the increasing number of funds with longer holding periods, especially in funds targeting industries such as infrastructure. “In some asset classes in private funds, the nature of the assets are long term holds,” Michael says. “Infrastructure is a good example. By its terms, infrastructure investments can end up being a 10- to 20-year asset.”
