

News & Events

Home > About Us > News & Events > All News

Jennifer Hobbs Profiled in Corporate Counsel's “Women, Influence & Power in Law” Series

10.30.20

Corporate Partner Jen Hobbs was profiled by Corporate Counsel in its “Women, Influence & Power in Law” feature, and was recognized in the “Women’s Legal Awards” category. In addition to being recognized as a leading banking and finance advisor, Jen was also honored for her leadership at Simpson Thacher and for playing an integral role in the Firm’s Women’s and Diversity Committees. In her profile, Jen notes one of the most important lessons for young associates is to believe they can expand beyond their current reach. “It’s a lesson that not only applies to learning new skills as a lawyer, but also in regards to your growth beyond the law.” Jen also noted that self-confidence and self-advocacy are critical for young associates as they seek to grow their careers.

To read the full profile, please click here.

