

Simpson Thacher Represents Underwriters in Registered Offering of 1,380,000 Common Shares of Globant

06.07.21

Simpson Thacher represented the underwriters, led by Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC and Citigroup Global Markets Inc., in connection with a registered primary public offering of common shares of Globant S.A. (NYSE: GLOB) consisting of 1,380,000 common shares at a price to the public of $214 per share.

Globant is a leading global technology services provider that leverages the latest technologies and methodologies to guide organizations through digital and cognitive transformation processes to become organizations that are augmented by technology and artificial intelligence. Globant is organized in Luxembourg and has more than 17,200 professionals in 18 countries.

Simpson Thacher represented the underwriters in Globant's initial public offering in 2014, and has since represented the underwriters in three secondary offerings and two primary follow-on offerings. Globant was founded in 2003 in Buenos Aires, Argentina by four friends who remain involved in the company. At the time of its IPO, which priced at $10 a share, Globant had 3,322 employees in seven countries.

The Simpson Thacher team included S. Todd Crider, Kirsten L. Davis, Teresita Acedo and Laura Ribero (Capital Markets); Jennie Getsin (FINRA and Blue Sky); and Marcy Geller, Scott Grundeir and William J. Smolinski (Tax).
