Daniel Kay Profiled in Law360 as a “Rising Star” in Banking

06.08.21

Partner Daniel Kay was profiled in Law360 as a “Rising Star” in Banking for 2021. He was recognized for advising on multiple, highly-complex acquisition financings throughout the pandemic, including those that paved the way for some of the largest deals of the year. When discussing why he was drawn to the banking industry, he noted that, among other aspects, he enjoys being on the cutting-edge of the market. “Our clients are fantastic. They’re doing the very top of the market, new deals, and it’s really nice to help them develop that new market,” he said. Daniel also highlighted that his role mentoring associates as well as earning clients’ trust over years of relationships are among the parts of his career that he is most proud of.
