Simpson Thacher Receives WILEF's Prestigious Gold Standard Certification for Tenth Time in U.S. and First Time in U.K.

07.12.21

The Women in Law Empowerment Forum (WILEF) recently awarded Simpson Thacher its Gold Standard Certification for the tenth time in a row in the United States and for the first time in the United Kingdom. Simpson Thacher is one of only four firms to have met both the U.S. and U.K. Gold Standard this year. WILEF's Gold Standard Certification recognizes law firms with 300 or more lawyers in the United States or United Kingdom that meet certain objective criteria, such as the number of women among equity partners, in firm leadership positions and in the ranks of a firm's most highly compensated partners.
