Jason Glover Speaks on Current State of the Private Equity Funding Markets

07.28.21

Corporate Partner Jason Glover was a featured panelist as part of a webinar organized by Greenbrook titled, “Current State of the Private Equity Funding Markets” on July 28th. Focusing on the first half of 2021, the discussion analyzed the state of political and media sentiment towards private equity, the potential impact of platform GPs raising an increasing number of funds and the overall demand from LPs for growth. The conversation also covered topics including sustainability and ESG, as well as the development of GP-led secondary deals extending ownership for GPs.
