

Simpson Thacher Partners Comment on Growing Secondaries Market

08.30.21

Private Funds Partners Lauren King and Pete Gilman were quoted in a Law360 article titled, “Keeping Up With The Evolving PE Secondaries Market.” The article describes the continued growth in the use of secondaries transactions and the proliferation of secondaries-focused funds. In the article, Lauren and Pete discussed the evolution of the secondaries market from an option once reserved for troubled-assets to a widely-utilized portfolio management tool that enables sponsors to maintain investments in well-performing assets. Lauren also described best practices for fund sponsors in how to manage potential conflicts in secondaries transactions.
