

Simpson Thacher Represents Golub Capital Credit Opportunities in Convertible Notes Private Placement in Connection With the De-SPAC Combination of Brivo, Inc. and Crown PropTech Acquisitions

11.10.21

The Firm represented Golub Capital Credit Opportunities as the lead investor in a $75 million convertible notes private placement in connection with the combination of Brivo, Inc. (“Brivo”) and Crown PropTech Acquisitions, a special purpose acquisition company or SPAC, that will result in Brivo becoming a publicly listed company.

Brivo is a global leader in mobile, cloud-based access control for commercial real estate, large distributed enterprises, and multifamily residential. Its comprehensive product ecosystem and open API provide businesses with powerful digital tools to increase security automation, elevate employee and tenant experience, and improve the safety of all people and assets in the built environment.

The Simpson Thacher team included Brian E. Rosenzweig, Dan Webb, Matt Hart, Braxton Pitts and Austin Hubbert (Capital Markets); Justin Lungstrum and Whitney Bosworth (Credit); Michael Torkin and Elisha Graff (Private Capital and Special Situations); Michael Mann and Scott Grundei (Tax); and Melanie Jolson (Intellectual Property).
