Cheryl Scarboro Named Among Savoy Magazine's “2022 Most Influential Black Lawyers”

02.15.22

Litigation Partner Cheryl Scarboro has been named to Savoy Magazine's “2022 Most Influential Black Lawyers,” a list that features visionaries, leaders and advocates from leading national law firms and corporate counsel from Fortune 1000 companies. Cheryl was also recognized in Savoy Magazine's previous edition among the “2018 Most Influential Black Lawyers.”

Cheryl represents clients in SEC and other regulatory enforcement proceedings; internal investigations; and counsels clients on FCPA compliance programs. She regularly speaks at FCPA and anti-corruption, compliance and enforcement conference and is a member of the Global Advisory Board of the Women in Law Empowerment Forum and of the Board of Visitors of Duke University School of Law.
