Cheryl Scarboro to Speak at TRACE Webinar on Anticorruption Enforcement

02.15.22

Litigation Partner Cheryl Scarboro will speak at TRACE International's ("TRACE") "Demystifying Anti-Corruption Enforcement for Journalists: Part I: Enforcement in the United States" webinar on February 16th. The webinar will center on anticorruption investigations and enforcement in the United States, and will cover such topics as: how FCPA cases are uncovered; prosecutorial discretion, settlements and deferred prosecution agreements; jurisdictional issues and coordination with international counterparts; and monitorships.

TRACE is a non-profit business association dedicated to anti-bribery, compliance and good governance. Founded in 2001, the association is widely recognized for establishing compliance standards and advancing commercial transparency worldwide.
