Marc Berger to Participate in Cambridge's "Forum on Financial Institutions Enforcement"

05.11.22

Global Co-Head of the Firm's Government and Internal Investigations Practice Marc Berger was selected to participate in Cambridge Forums' ("Cambridge") "Forum on Financial Institutions Enforcement," which will be held from May 12-13. Cambridge's Steering Committee selects a group of leading attorneys and senior in-house counsel from banks and law firms in the United States, the United Kingdom and Europe who are at the forefront of financial institution litigation for this annual forum. The invitees participate in seminar-style discussions regarding pressing issues in enforcement matters and potential practical solutions for clients and companies.
