

Marc Berger Speaks at PLI's "Enforcement 2022: Perspectives from Government Agencies" Program

05.25.22

Global Co-Head of the Firm's Government and Internal Investigations Practice Marc Berger participated in the Practising Law Institute's ("PLI") "Enforcement 2022: Perspectives from Government Agencies" program on May 25th in New York. Marc, who was formerly the Acting Director and Deputy Director of the SEC's Division of Enforcement, led the "Enforcement Priorities" panel, which included panelists from across different government agencies, including the DOJ, U.S. Attorney's Office for the SDNY, the SEC, the CFTC and FINRA. Among other topics, the panelists discussed agency missions and priorities, the latest issues in federal law enforcement and what the next new enforcement area may entail.

For more information on the program, please click here.

Team and Contacts

Marc Berger

Partner

marc.berger@stblaw.com

+1-212-455-2197

