John Terzaken Profiled in Law360 as 2022 Competition “MVP”

09.26.22

Partner John Terzaken was profiled by Law360 as a 2022 Competition “MVP.” The profile highlighted John’s work on a number of significant matters over the past year, including in securing the dismissal of a proposed class action alleging collusion among investment banks regarding the prices of odd-lots bonds; as well as successfully obtaining victories in litigation regarding the prices of dynamic random-access memory chips. John told Law360 that competition law requires lawyers to become familiar with clients’ businesses and industries: “Getting an opportunity to really understand and master a client's business is a particularized skill set and one that I just find particularly motivating and enjoyable,” he said.
