Stephen Blake Named a 2023 “Leading Commercial Litigator” by the Daily Journal

01.25.23

Litigation Partner Stephen Blake has been named among the Daily Journal's “Leading Commercial Litigators” for 2023. Stephen was recognized for his successes in numerous complex, high-profile litigation matters—including securing a first-of-its-kind dismissal of a COVID-19-related securities class action on behalf of Velocity Financial, a ruling that the Daily Journal noted “has been cited often for the proposition that corporations are not omniscient.” Stephen’s work resolving securities class actions on behalf of clients such as Alibaba and Silver Lake was also highlighted, as was his pro bono work on behalf of unaccompanied migrant children subject to the Remain in Mexico Program.
