Jonathan Youngwood to Speak at Northwestern Law's 50th Annual Securities Regulation Institute

01.26.23

Global Co-Chair of the Firm's Litigation Department Jonathan Youngwood will participate in Northwestern Pritzker School of Law's 50th Securities Regulation Institute on February 1st in Coronado, California. Jon will speak on a panel titled, "Securities Class Action and Shareholder Litigation: Key Developments and a View From All Angles," which will explore key developments within securities class actions, SPAC litigation and M&A and governance litigation. Topics will include opinion and scheme liability; ESG and crypto litigation; federal securities and Delaware Chancery litigation trends; busted deals; and D&O coverage, among others.

Northwestern Law's Securities Regulation Institute is one of the most visible and highly-regarded securities and corporate law conferences in the country. The Institute focuses on practical advice for all attorneys advising corporate clients on the ever-changing world of securities and business law. Attendees learn from regulators who write the new regulations, judges who interpret the law to resolve complex disputes and prominent practitioners who guide their clients through the maze of new legislation, regulations and jurisprudence.
