

ZEDRA Announces Close of Strategic Minority Investment From BCI

06.06.23

Simpson Thacher represented Corsair Capital (“Corsair”), the existing majority investor in ZEDRA, in connection with a strategic minority investment by British Columbia Investment Management Corporation (“BCI”), one of Canada’s largest institutional investors, into ZEDRA.

Founded in 2016, ZEDRA is one of the fastest growing global specialists in trust, fiduciary, corporate and fund services delivering a tailored and diversified range of wealth, governance and administrative solutions to clients who include high net worth individuals and families, multi-national companies of all sizes, corporate pension schemes as well as alternative investment managers.

The Simpson Thacher team includes Geoffrey Bailhache, Derek Baird and Surya Kiran Banerjee (Corporate) and Ross Ferguson (Antitrust).

Team and Contacts

Geoffrey Bailhache

Partner

geoffrey.bailhache@stblaw.com

+44-(0)20-7275-6470

Ross Ferguson

Partner

ross.ferguson@stblaw.com

+32-2-504-73-11

