Erland Modesto Profiled in Law360 as an Energy “Rising Star”

07.18.23

Corporate Partner Erland Modesto was profiled in Law360 as a “Rising Star” in Energy for 2023. Erland was recognized for guiding numerous clients on high-profile transactions, including advising on the financing aspects of DT Midstream’s spin-off from DTE Energy; representing SunPower in its entry into a $100 million revolving credit facility and $100 million term loan facility; and advising numerous banks on important energy-related financing matters. Erland told Law360 he enjoys the “fast-paced, diverse workload” in the energy space: “Being an energy lawyer in Houston, you have a wide variety of transactions you get to be part of,” he said. “The depth and breadth of that is exciting and keeps me engaged.”
