

Corporate Litigation: Control of the Attorney-Client Privilege for Pre-Merger Communications

12.12.19

In their Corporate Litigation column in the New York Law Journal, Litigation Partner Joe McLaughlin and Associate Shannon McGovern discuss how Delaware and New York address the question of who owns a target company's pre-acquisition, attorney-client privileged communications, and a recent Second Department decision that addresses a variation on those divergent approaches.

To read the full article, please click here.

Authors and Contacts

Joseph McLaughlin

Partner

jmclaughlin@stblaw.com

+1-212-455-3242

