

Bryce Friedman, Peter Guryan, Bill Russell and Vanessa Burrows Author Article on COVID-19 Price Gouging

04.30.20

Partners Bryce Friedman, Peter Guryan and Bill Russell, and Counsel Vanessa Burrows authored an article titled, “Price Gouging Considerations in the Wake of COVID-19,” which was published by NYU School of Law's Compliance & Enforcement Blog. The article discusses price gouging considerations in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic and the new challenges posed by the combination of the global reach of internet commerce businesses and the worldwide effects of the pandemic. The article also identifies and describes the variety of responses to COVID-19 price gouging, including federal legislation, investigation and enforcement; state investigation and enforcement; and industry self-regulation.
