

John Terzaken Co-Authors ABA Antitrust Law Section's Presidential Transition Report

02.08.21

John Terzaken, Global Co-Chair of the Firm's Antitrust and Trade Regulation Practice, is a member of the American Bar Association Antitrust Law Section's 2020 Presidential Transition Task Force, which authored the "Presidential Transition Report on the State of Antitrust Enforcement." The report outlined the Antitrust Law Section's views on the current state of antitrust and consumer protection landscape, addressed some important questions currently facing the agencies and courts and highlighted antitrust issues unique to certain industries. It further discussed potential challenges as a result of competition enforcement regimes continuing to grow and evolve throughout the world, among other topics.
