

James Board Authors Article in Private Debt Investor on Key Private Debt Fundraising Trends

11.03.21

Corporate Partner James Board authored an article titled, “Six Key Fundraising Trends,” which was published by Private Debt Investor. The article explores the private debt fundraising market over the 18 months since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. It further identifies six observable trends and hot topics that have developed during this period, as the asset class continues to mature, evolve and become more complex, including, consolidation, European direct lending, secondaries, ‘retailisation’ of credit strategies, open-end/evergreen structures and impact/ESG.
