

Patrick Ryan and Jessica Tuchinsky Author Article on Predictions for 2022 Large Cap Loan Market

03.17.22

Partners Patrick Ryan and Jessica Tuchinsky authored an article in Thomson Reuters Practical Law Finance titled, “Expert’s View: Developments in the Large Cap Loan Market,” that discussed trends and developments in the large cap market in 2021, what the market can expect in 2022 and what deal terms will likely attract increased attention over the next year. The article detailed initial predictions for 2022, including increased activity linked to the move from LIBOR-based interest rates to SOFR-based interest rates and an expected growth in sustainability-linked loans, while noting that heightened geopolitical tensions have resulted in unanticipated headwinds in the market.
