

John Terzaken, Abram Ellis and Elizabeth French Author Article on DOJ Antitrust Division's Criminal Leniency Program FAQ Updates

04.22.22

Partners John Terzaken and Abram Ellis, and Associate Elizabeth French authored an article published by NYU School of Law's Compliance & Enforcement Blog titled, "U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division Releases Updates to Criminal Leniency Program Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)." The article explores the most notable changes included in the Division's revised FAQs for its Corporate and Individual Leniency Policies. The article further states that whether, when and how to apply for leniency are complex decisions, requiring careful consideration of the numerous requirements, risks and collateral consequences involved for a company and its employees.

To read the full article, please click here.

Authors and Contacts

John Terzaken

Partner

john.terzaken@stblaw.com

+1-202-636-5858

Abram Ellis

Partner

aellis@stblaw.com

+1-202-636-5579

