

Simpson Thacher Attorneys Author Law360 Article on Executive Order Surrounding CFIUS

09.23.22

Partner Mick Tuesley and Associates Mark Skerry and Jennifer Ho authored an article titled, “Biden Order's New Lens Puts Foreign Transactions In Focus,” which was published by Law360. The article analyzes a new Executive Order signed by President Biden that defines several categories of national security factors that will be considered by CFIUS when evaluating a transaction. It additionally details the five categories outlined in the order, including the integrity of domestic supply chains, the advancement of U.S. technological leadership in key sectors, concentration risk, cybersecurity risks and sensitive personal data.
