

Lexology Getting The Deal Through: Market Intelligence – M&A 2022

11.03.22

Simpson Thacher attorneys contributed to the 2022 edition of “Lexology Getting The Deal Through: Market Intelligence – M&A,” which explored developments in the global M&A market during 2022 and provided an outlook for the remainder of the year. Eric Swedenburg, Co-Head of the Mergers and Acquisitions Practice, was the contributing editor for the edition and co-authored the “Global Trends” chapter and the “United States” chapter. Partners Clare Gaskell and Jiaying Zhang authored the “United Kingdom” chapter. The “United States” and “United Kingdom” chapters were formatted as Q&As and highlighted trends in the regions, active sectors, significant M&A deals, the evolution of the legal, regulatory and policy landscape in the region, cross-border and multi-jurisdictional deals, stages of a transaction and predictions for the future. Associate James Crisp provided valuable assistance in the preparation of these chapters.
