Gary Tashjian advises clients on a broad array of executive compensation and employee benefits arrangements, particularly with regard to issues arising in the context of mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, spin-offs and initial public offerings. He has worked with several of the world's most prominent sponsors in connection with acquisitions across a wide array of sectors, ranging from technology to infrastructure and healthcare to transportation. Gary also regularly advises public and private companies, including executives and board members, on a range of compensation-related matters, including employment and separation agreements, equity offerings and severance and change in control arrangements.
