

John Terzaken

Partner

900 G Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20001

john.terzaken@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-202-636-5858

Fax: +1-202-636-5502

A leading antitrust litigator and former federal prosecutor, John Terzaken is Global Co-Chair of the Firm's Antitrust and Trade Regulation Practice. John represents corporate and individual clients involved in government enforcement of antitrust, fraud and other white collar violations, as well as related follow-on civil litigation. His experience spans market sector investigations and litigation in all major industries, including financial services, pharmaceutical, professional services, manufacturing, energy, shipping, food and beverage, and many others. John previously served as the Director of Criminal Enforcement of the Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, where he oversaw the Division's criminal enforcement and

PRACTICE FOCUS

Litigation Antitrust and Trade Regulation
Government and Internal Investigations
International Regulatory and Compliance
Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and Sustainability
Privacy and Cybersecurity

INDUSTRIES

Healthcare Business and Professional Services
Consumer Products Financial Services
Industrials and Manufacturing Energy – Oil and Gas litigation nationwide. He has earned awards of distinction from the Attorney General of the United States and the Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division.

John was named as a 2022 “MVP” in Competition by Law360, and is consistently recognized as a leading antitrust lawyer (Band 1) by both Chambers Global and Chambers USA, where clients describe him as “. . . very strategic and creative with investigations,” “one of the strongest lawyers I have ever worked with,” “. . . a superb lawyer in the cartel space,” “highly professional and very responsive,” an attorney who is “extremely well respected,” “. . . smart, provides practical guidance and brings a lot to the table with his DOJ background,” “knows the technical aspects of antitrust law and also how to intuitively apply that to business realities,” and has a “wonderful working manner with clients and government figures.” John is also recognized in The Legal 500 “Hall of Fame,” where sources say he is “the very best of the best,” that he “brings unmatched knowledge, experience, relationships, attention to detail, responsiveness and wisdom to each engagement and interaction,” and that he “stands out for his creative thinking and strategic problem-solving skills.” He is recognized as a “Litigation Star” both nationally and in D.C. by Euromoney’s Benchmark Litigation and is also recognized by Who’s Who Legal: Competition.