

Tony Y. Rim

Partner

425 Lexington Avenue
New York, NY 10017

trim@stblaw.com

Phone: +1-212-455-7332

Fax: +1-212-455-2502

Tony Rim is a Partner in Simpson Thacher's Corporate Practice, where he focuses on corporate finance transactions. For more than a decade, Tony has regularly advised public and private companies, private equity sponsors and other investors as well as financial institutions in connection with the full spectrum of equity and debt capital raises – including IPOs, follow-on equity offerings, high-yield and leveraged finance transactions, among others. His clients span across several industries, including technology, media & telecom, financial services, fintech, healthcare, energy and consumer & retail.

In addition, Tony helps clients structure and execute innovative and complex hybrid capital solutions to fit

PRACTICE FOCUS

Corporate Capital Markets Initial Public Offerings
Equity and Equity Linked Debt High Yield Leveraged Finance
Corporate Governance Private Equity Lifecycle

INDUSTRIES

Consumer Products Energy – Oil and Gas
Energy – Power and Renewables Financial Services FinTech
Healthcare Media and Entertainment Technology Telecommunications

their needs, including multi-lien capital structures and private placements of structured products such as equity-linked securities and convertible preferred stock, for general corporate purposes as well as in special situations involving liability management or restructurings. Tony also has significant experience in acquisition financings and provides securities law advice in connection with M&A transactions, and he regularly advises corporate clients on securities laws, corporate governance and other general matters.